Notes

Teacher's Challenge

As a scholar, learning is your active responsibility. No one can ever take your ability to learn, to think, and to intelligently express yourself without your permission.

I encourage you to consider what you want to gain from enrollment in this class, whether it is simply to fulfill a graduation requirement or to become a better writer. Whatever it is allow that to encourage and motivate you on days that you need a push.

I am here to be a part of the bridge to help you reach your goal. Together, we can and will achieve.

I CAN.
YOU CAN.
WE CAN.

WE WILL.
