Class Agenda 01/10/2020

Warm-Up— (9:10-9:30) (11:10-11:30/12:45-1:15)

- Makeup ‘Werk, Werk, Werk’ Time!
  - Work quietly and independently. You may whisper to a nearby peer, if you have a question.
  - We will add “Root Time” to our “Empowerment” Notebooks starting next Friday.

Class Activity (9:30-10:30) (11:30-12:35/1:15-2:10)

- “Watch and Write” –We are going to watch “Remember the Titans”. If you have seen it, please do not share any spoiler alerts.
    - On loose-leaf paper with the proper M.L.A. heading and “Watch and Write” with “Remember the Titans,” as the title, write down a complete sentence for each of the following. You may refer to your “Let’s Jam” handout for literary definitions.
1. Consider the starting and stopping point of today’s movie, what is the TONE of the movie? Why (what makes you think this)?
  2. How does DICTION impact character relationships in the movie? Why (what makes you think this)?
  3. Think about Friday Night Lights scenes in the movie. How does the director use IMAGERY to get our attention? Why (what makes you think this)?
  4. Think about the two lead, dynamic characters. Evaluate the CONFLICT. What causes the CONFLICT? How is the CONFLICT resolved?
  5. How would you rate this movie based on a “Five-Heart” rating with Five being “Excellent!” and One being “It’s a’ight.” Write a complete sentence that supports your rating. (Draw five hearts. Next, Color-in or shade the number of hearts you assign to the movie on your sheet of loose-leaf.)

*****Please share your feedback about this assignment on the bottom of your paper.
